

Lawlor's Hotel Bar is a gathering place for families, friends, colleagues and visitors of Naas, to meet and celebrate.

Race days in particular are full with pre and post racing catch ups and the very important re-telling of the stories of the day. Part of the rich history of horse racing in Ireland, Lawlor's is one of the meeting points for participants and spectators of this great sport. We have our own history with Brigid Lawlor's horse, Nás na Ríogh, winning races and then breeding the famous Mill House, winner of the 1963 Cheltenham Gold Cup and 1967 Whitbread Gold Cup.

This menu takes you through what is available from morning to night, including our home-made scones and later in the evening our favourite cocktails for the season.
